PROJECT

Redevelopment of the slag heap in Muldenhütten

- Securing an old industrial storage site with slope heights of up to 30 m
- Angle of incline up to 38°
- Foot of slope in the area of water exchange for the Mulde, over a length of approx. 350 m, total area approx. 1.6 ha
- Securing the foot of the slope

OUR SERVICES

- Devising a full set of plans for the selected option for securing the heap
- Planning the construction engineering, working in a contaminated area
- Devising a schedule of construction periods and costs
- Negotiations with the authorities over the fundamental suitability for approval of works; devising documents for the necessary permissions for submitting to the authorities
- Execution planning; preparing award of contract and assisting with award of contract, construction site management, documentation of redevelopment, proofs of safe status for the side slopes of the heap and the covering.