DEVELOPER
Freiberg basin / Zschopau dam and reservoir services, Lengefeld

PROJEKT
Construction of new flood diversion tunnel from the Freiberg basin to the Mulda high-water retaining basin
- Construction of a new flood diversion tunnel as part of the construction of the high-water retaining basin in the Chemnitzbach valley
- Length approx. 4,350 m
- Round cross-section between 3.89 and 4.49 m
- 810 m bore with depths up to 135 m

OUR SERVICES
- Drafting of project specifications and schedule of works for the invitation to tender for the field investigation
- Invitation to tender for the works
- Specialist supervision of the geotechnical investigation
- Tunnel engineering expert report